

bringing hope to orphans in Africa

hoops of hope

Hoops of Hope is the largest free throw shoot-a-thon in the world. In partnership with World Vision, it's a student created, student led movement to care for children orphaned by HIV/AIDS.

Participants have raised over a million dollars to provide care for these children.

Join thousands of other participants from around the world in making a difference. Choose a date that works for you, or join one of our National Hoops of Hope Days. Go online at www.hoopsofhope.org to sign up today.

I suppose we could have done a walk-a-thon or something but shooting hoops just seemed like more fun. If we each do something, together we can do a lot. In the end, we're not only giving hope to orphans, we're serving others, which changes us too.
